QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What does it take to get a pedicab license?

You will have to get two 2" x 2" color passport photos, have a valid driver's license, a business license from the city of San Diego and finally an operators permit, which is laminated and must be displayed by you whenever you are riding.

How much does it cost to get my license?

The cost of the business license is $46.00 and the cost of the operators permit is $25.00. The total cost is $71.00 and if you do not have 2 passport photos, you should anticipate an additional $10.00.

How long does it take to get my license?

Pedicab licenses can be obtained in one day and in less than 3 hours in most cases. You can find the driver's licensing procedures on our website at www.ballparkpedicabs.com or we will provide one for you when you sign up to ride.

Where do I get my license and permit?

Licensing is completed within several blocks of Ballpark Pedicabs. You can find the driver's licensing procedures on our website at www.ballparkpedicabs.com or we will provide one for you when you sign up to ride. If you are unsure how to get your license, we will gladly walk you through the process personally.

What is the negative aspect of the job?

As a rider you must be in good physical shape. If you are not in shape, you will be sore and tired until you get into shape. You must be okay with people telling you "no" when they are not interested in a ride. Unless you offer, some people will not accept a ride.

How should interested applicants apply to ride?

Applicants can contact Ira or David at (619) 233-5381, send an email to ira@ballparkpedicabs.com or to david@ballparkpedicabs.com, or you may sign up on our website at www.ballparkpedicabs.com

When are the bikes available to ride?

The shop is completely automated allowing you to access the bikes anytime. You may choose to ride the day shift, the night shift, or you may even choose to ride them both. Our automated system allows you to access your bike regardless of the hours you decide to ride and gives you complete freedom to decide your own schedule.

How many bikes are available?

We currently have 20 bikes available for lease and they are in high demand. We strongly recommend that you sign up early to ensure that we will have a bike available for you.

Do you offer any type of training?

On your first day we will set you up to ride with one of our more experienced riders. They will inform you about the rules of the road and will also show you how to pick up passengers. After this orientation you should have no problem making good money and new friends in San Diego.

What if I still have more questions?
